Dated: 14.10.2021

NOTIFICATION/ 35-2021

In order to offer more flexibility of Open and Distance Learning system to NIOS learners, from the current block admission cycle of Vocational courses, it has been decided to delink the selection of AVI from the address of the learner. The learner would be able to select any vocational course of his choice in any AVI of his/her choice, wherein the course is available irrespective of his residential address. For residential address, the learner will submit Aadhar Card or related documents, which are required for online admission.

And to utilize the optimum capacity of the AVIs it has been decided to increase the batch size of learners being admitted, from the existing two batches to four batches per AVI in all the vocational courses from the current block of admission. However, the number of learners in one batch may remain same as decided by the Curriculum Committee of each Vocational course and as mentioned against each course in the Vocational Prospectus. This would ensure optimum utilization of the AVIs without compromising on the quality of teaching learning in vocational programs.

Further, AVIs are also

This issues with the approval of the competent authority.
