Meaning

India is a country of diversity. Geographically, it has different types of lands, mountains and forests, because of which people and their lifestyle as well as animals and birds are affected. In the patriotic songs the diversity has been described beautifully. The poet describes the people of India like a garland of different flowers, special features of our country and shows the devotion towards the country. The Patriotic song is about paying the gratitude to the nation. Mother and the motherland are greater than heaven. This sort of emotion has been expressed through the patriotic song.
