10. Supta virasana is an intermediate variation of virasana. Supta virasana is derived from Sanskrit with supta meaning "reclining" and vira meaning "hero."
11. Aparigraha means to take only what is necessary, and not to take advantage of a situation or act greedy. We should only take what we have earned; if we take more, we are exploiting someone else. The Yogi feels that the collection or hoarding of things implies a lack of faith in God and in himself to provide for his future. Aparigraha also implies letting go of our attachments to things and an understanding that impermanence and change are the only constants.
12. Hatha Yoga is the physical practice of yoga which focuses first on the Kriya and Asana practice. Hatha yoga is part of the integral system of Raja Yoga and focuses on the subtle energy flow in the body known as Prana. Hatha Yoga is the ladder leading to Raja Yoga.
13. Bandha means to lock, close-off, to stop. In the practice of a Bandha, the energy flow to a particular area of the body is blocked. There are four types of Bandhas:
  - Mula Bandha - Anal Lock

  - Jalandhara Bandha - Chin Lock
  - Maha Bandha - Practice of all three Bandhas at the same time.

  - Inhale deeply and raise the legs, head and trunk off the ground.
  - Keep the legs at an angle of about 30degree to 35degree from the floor and the top of the head in line with the toes.
  - Simultaneously, raise the hands at eh shoulder height parallel to the ground. Look towards the toes.
  - Exhale slowly and lower the legs, head and trunk.
  - Repeat 10 times. Relax in Savásana.
15. Mudra means a “sign” or a “seal” in Sanskrit. We use these gestures mostly in meditation or in Pranayama practice to direct the flow of energy within the body by using the hands.

Different areas of the hands are connected with areas in the body and the brain. So when we place our hands in Yoga Mudra's, we stimulate different areas of the brain and create a specific energy circuit in the body. By doing this, we help generate a specific state of mind.

- Fold the right leg at the knee and sit on the right heel.
- Fold the left leg also at the knee sit on both heels.
- Place the palms of the hands on the ground beside the knees.
- Make the spine slightly concave and fix the gaze straight ahead.
- The mouth is opened wide, the tongue is pushed out to its maximum. Practice rapid, forceful inhalation and exhalation, expanding and contracting the abdomen vigorously.

- Strengthening the muscles.
- It improves blood circulation to the whole trunk area and strengthens all the internal organs.

18. When that, giving up all forms, reflects only the meaning, it is Samādhi.

19. Karma means any action which is physical or mental. Karma yoga is welfare activity, performed selflessly, unattached and silently. Karma yoga is also an art of 'working in relaxation' with total 'Awareness'. Our actions are classified into three, namely Tamas, Rajas and Sattva.

- Tamas-This is the darkness and the crudeness in man. It is born of ignorance and the cause of delusion. It binds us through recklessness, laziness and sleep.
- Rajas -This is full of passion and is born out intense desire and attachment. It binds us through attachment with action.
- Sattva -This is pure, without impurities, illuminating and free from sickness. It binds us through attachment with happiness and knowledge.

Karma Yoga offers us three methods towards achieving the goal.

First step: This is to destroy the Tamas and remove the resistance to action, both physical and mental.

Second step: This is to overcome the problems of Rajas, manage the most difficult situations as fire-fighting with ease and not get lost.

Third step: This is to resolve all conflicts that arise on our way towards achieving the goal.

20. Practice

- Sit with the spine erect and the legs outstretched.
- Place the hands to the side of the right hip.
- Move the right hand back slightly further behind the body with the fingers pointing backward.
- Twist the trunk 90 degrees to the right, using the arms and shoulders as levers.
- Slowly bend the torso and bring the forehead to the floor.
- If possible keep both buttocks on the floor.
- Hold the final position for a short time.
- Slowly raise and return to the original position
- Repeat the movement on the other side. This completes one round.
- Practice up to 5 rounds.

It is important to note here that:

- Breathing: Inhale while facing forward.
- Retain the breath in while twisting.
- Exhale while bending.
- Retain the breath out in the final position.
- Inhale while raising the trunk.

21. Ego is constriction. Ego is focusing of mind. When the mind focuses, you have the Ego. What is Greed? Greed is the uncontrolled speed of the desire. As you go deeper and deeper into meditation, the mind goes into silence. Search the source from where the thoughts are coming. The Anandamayakosa. The infinite bliss, power and knowledge. The deep silence. There is an expansion taking place shattering the constricted focusing of Ego, arrogance and unnecessary showing off.

22. The word 'Vande Mataram' was the national call for Freedom in India. These two words were always recited by many freedom fighters of India when they were hanged by the Britishers.. Thus, the song 'Vande Mataram' reminds us of their sacrifice. It was written by legendary Bengali writer and novelist, Bankim Chandra Chattopadhyay and selected as the National Song of India on January 24, 1950. As this song is in the Divine language, Sanskrit, the one singing it as well as the one listening to it, is benefited.
