

National Institute of Open Schooling
Secondary Course- Social Science
Lesson 17: India - A welfare State
Worksheet – 17

- Q.1 “ India is described as a Welfare State.”Write down the meaning of being a Welfare state.
- Q.2 “The Constitution of India has done extensive provisions to be a welfare state”. Explain the provision with example.
- Q.3 “The Fundamental Rights act as a guarantee that all Indians will enjoy the civil liberties.”Explain the statement with example.
- Q.4 The founding fathers of the Constitution have made the provision for people of India to avail the benefits of social and economic rights. Mention the provisions and write down the importance of directive principles of state policy.
- Q.5 The directive principles of state policy is having some important characteristics. Find out the same and make a list.
- Q.6 The Directive Principles stated in the Constitution are of different types. Classify the categories and explain the importance.
- Q.7 There is a Relation between Directive Principles of State Policy and Fundamental Rights. Explain the same in your own words.
- Q.8 Swaraj (Self-rule), Sarvodaya (welfare for all) and Swavalamban (self-reliance) are the basic principles of Gandhian thought. Explain the Gandhian Principles of state policy.
- Q.9 The Constitution makers included some principles for foreign policy. Make the list of the same and explain.
- Q.10 The governments has taken major steps to implement the Directive Principles of state policy; explain and mention the steps.