

National Institute of Open Schooling
Senior Secondary Course : History
Lesson 27: Social Transformation
Worksheet - 27

1. Capitalist industrialization resulted in the growth of modern class society. Examine.
2. Identify the differences between capitalist and socialist countries.
3. In the modern world women usually bear the double burden of earning a wage and primarily doing the domestic work as well. Explain.
4. Capitalist industrialization creates expansion during the 20th century which made possible great progress but also led to increasing inequalities in the world. Analyse.
5. List the some examples of how science and technological advances have improved human life.
6. Examine the reasons for population growth in Western Europe and North America.
7. The expansion of economy in the twentieth century, along with literacy, opened new avenues for women. Examine.
8. Examine how suffragette movements became an important aspect of women assertions for equality.
9. Examine the changes brought about by “out-sourcing”.
10. Explain the condition of women in India in the 20th century.