

Senior Secondary Course : Military Studies

Lesson 7 : Geo-Strategy

Worksheet – 7

1. The need for armed forces has existed since ancient times. Justify
2. Countries also enter into treaties and alliances with other countries as a part of their strategy to achieve their national goals. Explain
3. Compare and contrast geography and geo- strategy?
4. Analyse the advantages of population & diverse culture from militaries perspective?
5. On an outline political map of India, mark the different kinds of minerals found in India?
6. Identify the industrial resources which play a significant role in defence?
7. The maintenance of strong defence forces require strong economy and hence it is important to know the linkages between geographical factors and defence. Justify
8. Discuss about the treaties and alliances made by India with other countries to maintain peace ?
9. Abundance of resources results in economic development which in return strengthens the military development. Justify the statement.
10. Throw some light on the geographical resources of India.