

National Institute of Open Schooling
Senior Secondary Course: Mass Communication
Module - 3

Lesson 25B: Photography: An Introduction
Worksheet – 25B

1. Pictures are known as non-verbal forms of communication. Select any five photos from newspapers and magazines & explain them on the basis of your observation.
2. Photos are attached with newspapers and magazines while composing news. Talk to any news editor or photojournalist to find out the importance of the photographs.
3. Draw diagram of Pinhole camera obscure and mention its three characteristics.
4. Select any five photos that you have seen recently. Answer the reasoning of all the photographs.
5. Discuss with your friends the five features of Film Photography.
6. With the help of a table write down the various technological changes that have come in the last two decades in cameras.
7. What do you understand by Digital camera? With the help of your mobile phone take some pictures of your surroundings.
8. With the help of a diagram represent the digital function of camera.
9. Visit any photo studio near your home and try to understand the new techniques used in present day photography.
10. Do a comparative study between Camera Obscura and Digital Camera?