

National Institute of Open Schooling
Senior Secondary Course- Political Science
Lesson 22: Communalism, Caste and Reservations
Worksheet – 22

- Q.1 The Communalism and casteism both are affecting the Indian politics, in reference with the given statement write down the impacts of communalism and casteism on politics.
- Q.2 “Communalism can be defined as a system based on the principality of the religion” considering the statement write down the meaning of communalism.
- Q.3 The Communal Violence is a threat to the national integrity & safety in context with the given statement writes down the measure to avoid the communal violence.
- Q.4 The caste system has developed into an elaborate system to maintain socio, economic inequalities in the society, explain the given statement and write down the Role of Caste system in Indian Society.
- Q.5 Caste is a localized group having a traditional association with an occupation, Explain the following in reference to the given statement:
- A) Varna-Vyavastha in the society.
  - B) The socio-religious movement of the 19th century.
- Q.6 Caste and politics interaction has been a two-way process, Explain the given statement in your own words.
- Q.7 Universal Adult Franchise and Constitutional Provision in favour of backward classes have brought the issue of caste in Indian Politics. In light of the given statement answer the following:
- A) The introduction of universal Adult Franchise in Indian Politics
  - B) Constitutional provisions for Protective discrimination in favour of the backward class.
- Q.8 The Constitution makers has made some special provisions for the upliftment of the backward class, List down the provision done by the constitution.
- Q.9 The Constitution has recognized the three categories of people as backward class, about the statement write down the provisions done for SC, STs and other back ward class.
- Q.10 The Reservation provision for woman’s has enhanced the participation of the women in politics and other Professions, Explain the current situation of woman’s participation in every aspect of life.