

National Institute of Open Schooling
Senior Secondary Course-Political Science
Lesson 24: Good Governance
Worksheet-24

- Q.1 The state came into existence for the purpose for safe and happy life. Explain the duties of the state.
- Q.2 Good governance is to provide goods and services to the people. What this statement means, explain in your own words.
- Q.3 In the scheme of Kautilya some of the features of good governance has been mentioned. List down those features and explain.
- Q.4 The Asian Development Basic report has clearly voiced about the concerns of good governance. Write down the questions raised in the report for good governance.
- Q.5 Bureaucracy should be accountable and answerable for their good and bad performances. If you agree then explain the statement with an example.
- Q.6 The accountable system of governance presupposes some functional and behavioral traits. Write down those traits and explain.
- Q.7 In India several institutional and legal arrangements have been made to secure the prevalence of an accountable administration; in context with the statement answer the following:
- A) The major functions of central vigilance commission.
 - B) Importance of national commissions for women.
- Q.8 The government has initiated some measures to see the accountability of administration. Make the list of the measures and explain.
- Q.9 The reservation through 73rd and 74th Amendment Act 1992 has encouraged the empowerment of women and marginalized group; if yes explain the details of the amendment.
- Q10 We can achieve the goal of good governance by different measures; in context to the statement answer the following:
- A) Involvement and participation of people for Good governance has played a major role; explain the statement in context of your state.
 - B) Computer and technology role in Good governance.