

National Institute of Open Schooling
Senior Secondary
Lesson 22 – Person Perception and Interpersonal Attraction
Worksheet-22

1. “As children grow, their self-concept become more and more differentiated”. Discuss the given statement.
2. Comment on the process of development of self. Also explain the role of parents and the individual himself in the development of self.
3. In your opinion “First impression is the last impression” have any relevance? If Yes/No, justify your answer.
4. Explain the different sources of information that are used in impression formation.
5. A psychologist is thinking of preparing a test to assess interpersonal attraction between individuals. Enlist and explain some factors that s/he should consider for the formulation of this test.
6. Suggest ways that influence the development of trust and love in a child.
7. Identify the characteristics of a close friendship and express our opinion on the importance of these characteristics in a relationship.