

National Institute of Open Schooling
Senior Secondary
Lesson 28A – Vocational Choice and Vocational Adjustment
Worksheet-28A

1. Explain the features of general education and list its benefits.
2. Identify ten different jobs in the government sector and write the eligibility criteria for them.
3. List at least three of your vocational interests and explain the personality characteristics that are suitable for these vocational interests.
4. Mala wants to pursue electrical engineering. But she wants to know beforehand if she has the ability to be an electrical engineer. How can you help Mala? Explain.
5. Elucidate upon the factors that must be considered in making one's vocational choice.
6. Define the concept of job satisfaction using an example and describe different factors that influence job satisfaction.
7. In your opinion, is job satisfaction important for an individual? If Yes/No, justify your answer with reasons.
8. A survey was conducted by an organization to measure the job satisfaction of employees. The results indicated that the employees job satisfaction levels are low and that may be a cause behind low levels of work motivation. Critically analyze the given study.
9. National Institute of Open Schooling (NIOS) is an organization. Visit NIOS's web portal and collect information about its objectives, goals and achievements as an educational organization.