NOTIFICATION - 27/2024

The National Institute of Open Schooling (NIOS) offers Transfer of Credit (TOC) facilities to the ex-students of NIOS and of certain other recognized Boards of School Education which have been given equivalence by the Association of Indian University (AIU). The facility of TOC is given in all the four streams i.e 1,2,3 & 4 under which admissions are made in NIOS.

Those who wish to take admission and avail the facility of Transfer of Credit as per NIOS Academic Prospectus TOC Rule 2.6, their result data in respect of their Secondary/Sr. Secondary examination should be available in the concerned Board's official website to verify the correctness of the marks/results of the students. In case the result data is not available on the parent Boards website, the students are required to get it verified the result documents from their parent Boards and should upload the same during the time of registration of admission in NIOS Portal. The student is required to send parent Boards failed Marksheet and verification report in original along with the copy of online Admission Application form to the concerned Regional Centre as per NIOS TOC norms.
