NOTIFICATION -24/2024

As per the Tripartite MoU signed between MoHFW, NHSRC and NIOS, ASHA Certification Examination is conducted four times in a year. Assessment of ASHAs is conducted in three components i.e. Internal, Practical Evaluation & Theory Skills to enhance their competency and professional credibility.

It is mandatory for ASHAs to appear in all the above three components. ASHAs are certified, after securing the Pass Marks in all the three components.

In pursuance to the decision of MoHFW in the Project Steering Committee meeting held on 8th October 2024 and as per the Minutes of Meeting dated 15th October 2024, it is notified that :

To allow the uncertified ASHAs to qualify the examination, the number of attempts for both packages (First and Second Component) has been revised as under:

- Maximum two attempts for the first component (RMNCHA +N - Reproductive Maternal , New -born, Child Adolescent Health plus Nutrition and Communicable Diseases), and
- Maximum three attempts for the second component / Expanded package of services (Ayushman Bharat - Health & Wellness Centre's)
