RENAISSANCE

The Renaissance is a word which means “Re-Birth”. Thus it stands to depict the revival of Art, Architecture and Literature in 14th to 17th century. Renaissance began with the revival of interest in ancient classical culture of Greeks and Romans. This period was known for new experiments, power of reasoning, laws and discoveries. Thus it was called the “Age of Enlightenment”. Renaissance had spread from Early Renaissance to High Renaissance and finally to Mannerism and Baroque.

Though, 14th century Renaissance with prominent Artists like Duccio and Masaccio had more gothic method of narration and less anatomy knowledge, yet they show sense of scientific proportion and observation in their painting. 15th Century Renaissance gave enough stress to balance and harmony in Art and Nature. The use of light, shadow, foreshortening and perspective had been perfected. The most famous painters of this period are Leonardo da Vinci, Raphael and Michael Angelo. Mannerist Artists extended the principles of High Renaissance and tend to represent elongated figures in illogical spaces. Here, the emphasis was given more to show human soul with anatomically corrected human body.

Artist – Sandro Botticelli

Medium – Tempera on canvas

Period – 1485-1486

Style – Renaissance

Collection – Galleria degli Uffizi in Florence

GENERAL DESCRIPTION

Sandro Botticelli painted Birth of Venus in about 1486. This painting shows one of the best examples of rebirth of classical motifs inspired by 2nd century ancient Greek masterpieces. The painting depicts the classical goddess ‘Venus’ emerging from the water on shell. The nude goddess is a representation not of earthly but spiritual love. She arrives as a full grown woman, symbolizing beauty and truth. She is joined by one of the goddesses of seasons, who offer her cloth embroidered with flowers to cover her body. On the other side emerges wind god like angels free flowing in air. Venus stands in the centre with modest pose which recalls ancient Gothic’s sculptures. The anatomy of Venus does not display the strict classical realism, as she is shown with elongated neck and her left shoulder slopes at unusual angle. She bears slim and long limbs. The cool artificial light adds soft harmonious beauty to the painting.

Introduction of Western Art

MONA LISA
Leonardo da Vinci (1452-1519) was an Italian painter. He was regarded both as scientist and artist. Among many famous paintings, ‘The Last supper’, ‘The Virgin of the Rocks’ and ‘Mona Lisa’ stand for ever universal fame. Mona Lisa was painted in 16th century on poplar wood in oil colours. It depicts a woman sitting with a mysterious smile which seems to welcome the observer. Leonardo used a pyramid design, where her folded hands form the base. There is a dramatic contrast of light and dark. The brightly lit face is framed with various elements like hair, veil, and shadows. In the portrait of Mona Lisa there is no visible facial hair, even eyebrows and eyelashes are shown missing; still the smile on the woman’s face depicted more striking when looking at the portrait’s eye than when looking at the mouth itself. There is a vast landscape behind the portrait. It depicts icy mountain, valley and curved river. The representation of the painting Mona Lisa reflects Leonardo’s vision to connect humanity with nature.

artist’s own creative expressions. The structure of this sculpture is pyramidal in shape. Here he depicts Madonna much younger than her son, the Christ to express her purity. This is the most highly finished work of Michael Angelo. The sculpture has unique drapery movements and strong anatomy details. The other famous works of art created by Michael Angelo are the sculpture of ‘David’, ‘Moses’ and the Frescoes on the ceiling of the Sistine chapel in Rome.

5.4 THE NIGHT WATCH

Title – The Night Watch

Artist – Rembrandt

Medium – Oil on Canvas

Period – 1642

Style – Renaissance (Baroque)

Collection – Rijks Museum, Amsterdam

GENERAL DESCRIPTION

Rembrandt was a Dutch painter. He was a realist. In most of his paintings, we see the mysteries in the play of light and shade. This tends to highlight the ‘soul’ of the painting. Rembrandt painted ‘Night Watch’ between 1640-1642. For a long time the painting was kept coated with a dark varnish which gave the incorrect impression that the painting depicted a night scene but when the varnish was removed in 1940 it was discovered to represent broad day light.

This painting illustrates the young captain giving order to his lieutenant to march his Company civilians. The painting shows effective use of light and shadows. The captain is dressed in black with a red sash. The lieutenant and a small girl are shown wearing yellow dress which also symbolizes the colour of victory. There is also a white dead chicken hanging from the girl’s belt shown to represent defeated enemy. In the background stands a drummer to energize the march. The painting shows the mastery to depict the traditional-military portraits with expression.
