5. Read the following passage and answer the questions that follow:

I can't believe mothers can do this to their children- Sania Mirza

Female foeticide! I had never heard about it previously. I cannot believe that some mothers can do this to their children. It's shocking.

I should consider myself lucky and I really owe it to my parents, who also have my sister... making it 'two' girl children. I own my family a lot for two reasons; being supportive and more so accepting that fact that children – male or female – are just children.

Throughout my life my parents have never shown any sign of unhappiness at not having a son. Hats off to them. Having understood what female foeticide is all about, accepting the cause to fight against it has become my priority.

Girls can match boys in all aspects so why this reluctance to have a daughter? After all, life begins in a woman.

More than just being an ambassador, in my individual capacity I want to do whatever I can to support such a good cause as that of fighting female foeticide.

I do not know in what way I could be of help... but know that the best way is to do my bit on the tennis court. The more I win the more I can help the cause.

I will talk to as many players as I can, asking them to help fight these acts that are against Allah's will.

- Sania Mirza
